We had a lovely midweek family lunch, the staff are excellent and made us feel very welcome, they checked our Covid certs in the hallway before we entered the restaurant, they brought us to a lovely table and were more than helpful with the menu and choices available. The food is delicious and my sister and I opted for Lasagne with side salad and chips while my dad had a delicious ham carvery lunch. Really good food... read more. What User doesn't like about The Round O:

went ere last Sunday and the food was not that good we waited atleast an our for our main courses.They also let a man in using a ripped apart tissue as a mask while he was on top of people eating and along with that we where in-hailing smoke from a ciggerette wouldn't go back soon. This Inn serves dishes, which are typical for the whole continent of Europe, There are also some international dishes available on the menu. For early risers there is a yum brunch to your liking in The Round O. savor yourself as much as you want.
