Salthill was absolutely jammed with outdoor diners, so we called in to Galway Golf Club, having visited a few years ago for lunch. We were served by very friendly and welcoming staff. We had two magnificent meals, one steak and one salmon, both served with lovely vegetables. It is a beautiful setting, overlooking the golf course, and if you are looking for an excellent meal at a very reasonable price, then look no fu... read more. What User doesn't like about Galway Golf Club:

The food is nice here and the view is great. Covid guidelines being followed. However we were seated right beside the busy kitchen even though there were a dozen other tables further away and quieter. Various provides of fine seafood dishes can be found at this Inn, our focus is to prepare your menus in record time and using fresh ingredients. The local establishment offers a comprehensive selection of fresh pressed juices and delicious smoothies for guests.
