that was the best meal I had on this island so far. they offered a vegan breakfast, toasts and roll offered vegan options as well. the staff was very friendly and attentive. really nothing to complain, great food and great coffee.

put me in the day with a great start! read more. What User doesn't like about The Swan:

the service was bad. the starter lasted 30 minutes to arrive. the main course lasted another full hour and even then there was missing something. that was terrible. three main courses went with more than half of it still on the plate. (greasy fritters. burger with a smell of perfume served on a dirty wood-chopping board I saw a customer in the corner empty his mouth on his table from any background. we were there to...
