Just over in Dublin for a day from UK with a friend whose birthday it was and to meet my cousin, we walked past this Restaurant in the morning and went back hoping to have a delicious leisurely lunch before flying back. Well, we picked the perfect place. We were greeted well and Covid certs checked. Shown to a good table but explained to us that we would have to vacate it by was in fact, we had such a lovely time it w... read more. What

User doesn't like about Dunne And Crescenzi:

Very reliable authentic Italian restaurant especially excellent wine options and mainly Italian staff. The menu is good but my only regret is the blend of non Italian dishes reduces the choice a little. My starter of grilled vegetables was excellent and main course of spaghetti with speck ham was tasty and portions massive, best of all was the tiramisu! Staff are very friendly and helpful the fact that they are traini... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available at no extra cost. The Dunne And Crescenzi originating from Dublin provides various fine seafood courses, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the extensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides. As a rule, most courses are prepared quickly for you and served, and you can expect typical Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
