great cozy place with nice and friendly staff and very good fresh food. we were in blackpool for rebellion festival and were happy to find this cafe. they have really good and fresh vegan breakfast and other vegan and vegetarian menus. English breakfast was also good. I was glad to find this place with really good coffee and nice atmosphere. we loved it and came every day. read more. What User doesn't like about The Peppermill Cafe:

The food was all deep fried swimming in oil very off putting we could not eat the food 4 of us coffee was like hot milk I went up to speak to the older gentleman regards us not being able to eat the breakfast to explain what we felt about our visit there and food was not of a good quality he became very cheeky telling me I was not welcome back his daughter was there with him she was a bit aggressive also towards me...
