This was the first visit we have made to the Dressers Arms and the bar area was very busy during Saturday afternoon. We were in the Preston area and had booked a table for but had finished what we were doing so went to the pub/restaurant for about we were seated at our table with no fuss. We knew it was busy and the waitress took our drinks order and then the food order and we didn't have to wait to long. The service w... read more.
