The restaurant from London offers 41 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average £16. What N likes about Galvin at Windows:

Breathtaking views accompanied by high calibre fine dining. The atmosphere is amazing and you feel like you're on top of London. There are perfect views of Hyde Park. The menu is refined and tasty. The dishes were well balanced with some unique touches. I'm giving 4 stars because my experience was tainted by a large corporate booking (a table of around 20 people) making a lot of noise and chatting while standing arou... read more. What

Ming You s doesn't like about Galvin at Windows:

Booked Boxing Day lunch. 55gbps/person. Appetiser not great, though the soup was decent Mains Risotto felt stale and starchy, lifeless; cod had an overwhelmingly pungent smell and not in a fresh seafood kind of way. Maybe it was an off day? Main chef probably taking a break. Hopefully. The other reviews here are positive which is why we tried it out. Service was good though and they did offer to replace the cod..good... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Galvin at Windows from London is a good place for a bar to a drink after work and be able to hang out with friends, and you may look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine. If you'd like something dessert for dessert, Galvin at Windows does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts. Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially extensive diversity of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
