we visited here today as a family of 9 to celebrate the day of water. I have seen a recommendation on the Facebook page of slings and things. with 3 preschool children in the tow-tow it was absolutely perfect. we booked a table in advance and sat near the preschool corner. the children were entertained immediately, which means we can watch the menu and decide what we have. friendly staff. in a contemporary home. eati... Beautiful place but that's it. Watered down drinks and trying to overcharge on several occasions. Poor bride and groom being charged for one of their guests drinking a bottle of there own vodka. Will never ever go here again.

£7 for a pint of San Miguel. The staff should all be wearing masks. read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Vallum in Northumberland traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle. At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a versatile brunch, there are also fine vegetarian meals on the menu.
