Arrived with a warm welcome but told we would be in the snug as the restaurant was busy, not what we expected. Whilst slightly cosy it was dark, cold and non atmospheric albeit we spoke to some lovely people in their having a drink The menu was limited but we enjoyed our meal. The staff were exceptional and service was excellent and friendly But given the above thatâs why we marked some areas lower. Given it was a... read more. What User doesn't like about Stein Inn:

We visit the Stein Inn every time we come Skye. This is the first time we have eaten there as we had heard that Paul Rankin was involved in the business. The staff were lovely and the lady who took the order went back to check with the chef re what could be adapted for a gluten free guest. Mussels were delicious and it was good to hear that the artisan sausage was home made and gluten free. However, we were disappoint... read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If you feel like snacks, you should visit Stein Inn because they have enchanting desserts that will definitely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine, Naturally, you should also taste the scrumptious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided.
