Lovely venue and usually great quality of food and service but unfortunately on Sunday morning this was not the case. We had coffees, toast and scrambled eggs for three people. Half the food arrived before the rest, two people had no cutlery, the toast came with no butter or marmalade and one of the party began eating her toast from a napkin on the table. For the price you pay i was not impressed read more. What User doesn't like about Avoca Salt:

I popped in to get some take away salmon with salad just after on a weekday. The choice from this counter is good and the food tasted fine, typical Avoca fare. However, I was bemused and left aghast by the fact that they would not serve me a coffee to go! Closed, finished serving coffee I was informed (although there is more than one counter in Salt that do coffee Seems very odd to still be serving hot food too go an... read more.
