What User likes about The Sly Fox:

Really nice food and not the same old stuff that so many vegan places do...no Beyond Burgers or Moving Mountains anywhere! Instead some way more interesting options, and the two I got to try were fantastic- goulash and the seaweed arancini. Lots more to try so looking forward to a return visit. read more. What User doesn't like about The Sly Fox:

I visited the Sly Fox 3 times and although I really wanted to like it, the food is really amateur. Their burger is good but overpriced: the kimchi is a nice touch, but I wished they used better fries (the ones they use are cheap frozen ones). Apart from this, everything else was sad. Their cake was soooo dry, the coffee was undrinkable (it even had coffee grounds in!), and their french toast tasted too much of turmer... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to The Sly Fox, the place offers also dishes from the European environment. In case you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch is offered to you, Furthermore, the delicious treats of this local sparkle not only in the eyes of our young guests.
