I've recently moved into the area and treat myself every Friday to dinner. This week I had a curry and It was absolutely beautiful. I make a point of ordering something different every week and I've yet to be disappointed. There is a huge variety of gluten free food available which is vital to me. The atmosphere is warm and welcoming and I cant complain about the service. Well done to the chef and staff. Keep the goo... read more. What User doesn't like about Watters:

basic over boiled carvery. great help and they can ask for extras of the bits they like. reminds me of Sunday dinner in the 80s. it would not be my cup tee, but it will still get 3 stars as I know that this style of food is popular with many people.
