We were away for a weekend, first time i years and went to Rivers Edge on both nights we stayed in Bunclody. It was the best decision we made as we were treated to a fantastic meal and great service. The people just came up and chatted us as though we were locals and made us feel at home. On the Saturday night music was playing and gave a great vibe to the place. Hats off to ye it made our weekend. read more. What User doesn't like about

River's Edge:

We had dinner at this pub when we were visiting it was the most awful food I have ever tasted it wasn't even edible needless to say I will not be returning and I certainly would not recommend it to anyone and also I stated my dissatisfaction of the quality of the food to the waitress but she never returned to clean off our table which I thought very rude .Mary Dublin read more.
