we used this chippy for the first time recently and I must say that I was impressed. the fish was cooked nicely and the teig was delicious. the chips were also cooked nicely and not quite fat. the service was fast and friendly so all in all a good experience and we will go back soon. read more. What User doesn't like about Seamer Fisheries:

We have had fish and chips from here several times before and they have always been reasonable to good. Last night my family sat down to enjoy a rare meal together and all I can say is that the quality of the fish and chips was very poor. The fish was dry and not too fresh and the chips were simply soggy. One family member, who usually eats anything and everything left half of their fish and others of the family left...
