What User likes about The Butchers Arms: Never been here before but booked as was a halfway meeting point while on holiday to meet up with family. Very friendly owner and a lovely waitress working on the night we came. Three of us had the duck which was excellent good portions but left enough room for pudding. All food freshly prepared and at good value shame we are not near to you as would come back more often if local read more. What User doesn't like about The Butchers Arms:

A disappointing meal on a Saturday evening for 6 friends. The staff were lovely and most helpful but the food was a let down for 3 of us. We ordered duck in a Grand Marnier sauce but being given a steak knife with it was unusual to say the least! One person sent it straight back but 2 of us carried on with the worst duck I have ever tried to eat. The skin was very fatty and slimy but the meat was mostly too tough to... read more.
