It wasn't cordon bleu cuisine but it was just really nice simple food from a straightforward menu. Lasagne was warming and tasty and my other half's minted lamb steaks were delicious apparently. Puds are traditional (apple pie and jam sponge pudding) but really well done....The welcome and the people were warm and friendly and it was well worth a call in if you're on the road between Bodmin and Padstow. Stopped off here for a Sunday roast as it was my birthday! Staff are friendly but it was really cold in there we had to keep our coats on the whole time! We had roast chicken it was OK nothing special but eatable! I don't...think I would go again read more.
