The restaurant offers a delicious spice bag known for its generous portion size and customization options. Reviews mention the beautiful Cantonese duck, Singapore fried rice, and curry rolls. Customers have been loyal for years but have noted lapses in service efficiency and quality in recent orders. While prices may be higher compared to other establishments, the food is considered a special treat. Overall, the dining experience is made memorable by standout dishes like the spice bag and curry. The standout among the staff is Joanna, who receives praise for her excellent service, indicating that a visit to this restaurant would likely be a positive experience.
