I and my partner went here today for a few drinks, they sell peroni on tap that I can find in these days. the staff was very friendly and accommodating. Although we had no eating, we saw many tellers coming past us and it looked amazing, and the couples that both sides of us mentioned how beautiful their eating was. beautiful location with a beautiful seating area in free, will be 100% back. We have been to the Maids Head before as we can cycle from Burwell. We went on Friday I must say that the food was absolutely awful. I had a meat pizza it was small, lacking ingredients, undercooked cold, my wife had lamb kofta that was dreadful tasteless cold. We complained but it didn't seem to have much impact. read more.

As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Maids Head Wicken in East Cambridgeshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, The visitors of the restaurant also appreciate the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Naturally, they also offer you with crisply crunchy pizza, baked straight from the oven in traditional style, And of course, you should also try the tasty burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges provided.
