This was a lucky find for a last minute evening meal with a friend. The menu was difficult to choose just one item as the options looked delicious. I went with the gnocchi bolognese and it was amazing. The ambience was lovely, it was a very popular place with live music in the evening. I would 100% recommend for casual dining with friends or for a romantic meal. read more. What Thomas Butler doesn't like about Giuseppe's Place:

on the way to the Shakespeare world we wanted to have lunch. we found giuseppe's place by chance. when we came to the place, we understood directly that it is a typical traditional Italian restaurant in the middle of london. Each ordered another dish: gnocchi, pasta with seafood, pasta with lachs, pasta with lobster that my art pasta. all were brilliant. we all agree that the place deserves a good purpose!
