Wow, this was a long time ago that we were surprised at culinary levels. It doesn't look so beautiful, it tastes fantastic! Nice list to sit and great staff. Top atmosphere! read more. What User doesn't like about Bistro Bruut: The chef was super rude with us. I can't eat red meat and it was part of the menu. We asked if I could just skip that appetizer (paying full price of course, just not eating the red meat) and he said "No" basically he kicked us out. I understand he has a fixed menu and wants to deliver an specific culinary experience but men, no need to be rude. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. This Bistro stands out for its smallness, but finesse, not only for its ambiance, but also due to its selection of typical, delicious meals at traditionally reasonable prices, Also, the guests of the restaurant love the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages.
