What User likes about Cafe Du Journal: Both my two experiences eating there have been fantastic so far, great soup and friendly staff, clean tables out the front on a quiet road in a sunny spacious spot. I didn't use it but like their quirky little outdoor tap and sink... read more. What User doesn't like about Cafe Du Journal:

it is a beautiful little spot, but I felt like it was very scattered with all the items on sale. we were in a waiting queue for only one coffee for at least 15 minutes. the service is friendly but away too slow. the baked were freshly baked and looked ineffective! read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. The Cafe Du Journal from Dublin presents dishes that are typical for the entire continent of Europe, Furthermore, the guests of the establishment enjoy the large selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Especially the flavorful juices are highly appreciated by the guests.
