While the pub itself is nice, it was very quiet so it was surprising that there were already items off the menu. Also a mix up by serving ordinary garlic bread instead of gluten free, while this was settled amicably it could have had serious repercussions. Food itself was quite nice (ham eggs and chips) but would advise double checking of special requirements read more. What User doesn't like about The Cherry Tree:

appropriate, without being overwhelming. eating was decent, but a few of the party thought the portions were a little bit small, as they salad based it was not great, salad still quite cheap.
