I had lunch there on Saturday with four other ladies ,the food was beautiful but the waitress was absolutely excellent,her attention to detail in these covid times can not go without a mention she barely touched the cutlery or plates and made sure out table was spotless definitely a review read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The extensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Conkers even more worthwhile, and you can look forward to the delicious classic seafood cuisine. If you decide to come for breakfast, a tasty brunch is ready for you, Typically, the dishes are prepared for you in a short time and fresh.
