very family-friendly. we loved the children's menu. a real Sunday dinner for adults and children. children ate everything, including the sweet. delicious cauliflower cheese. good value. friendly and attentive service. read more. What User doesn't like about The Woodlands Tavern:

at my visit here, with a few friends I had not seen in one because I was very disappointed, service was terrible, the staff is rude and not helpful. I was ignored long before I called someone to help the food was poor, reheated veg and my friend had a steak that was not cooked as she asked. the "managers" were very busy with other guests I took as friends, maybe if I were a regular, would I be treated differently? wh...
