What User likes about Tuk:

First visit here and very enjoyable, we arrived early afternoon so it was understandably a little quiet but I can understand why it's such a popular restaurant in the area, the food was delicious, the gyozas were obviously cooked from frozen and not cooked fresh but apart from that minor quibble, everything else was fantastic, we'll certainly make a return visit read more.

What User doesn't like about Tuk:
hands down this is the best Asian street food I ever had in Britain. first, the employees are very accommodating and helpful. the prices are quite reasonable, but the price-performance ratio is unbelievable as the proportions are massive. the taste of eating is simply great. I tried the pad thai and the chicken basil die fry. both were delicious! absolutely recommended. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. Tuk from Dublin cooks delicious dishes with the Thai culinary famous spices and (fish-)sauces, along with loads of fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, Many visitors are especially looking forward to the experience of versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine. meals are prepared typically in the Asian style, The creative fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the guests - a good example of Asian Fusion.
