The place from Birmingham offers 22 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of £27. Overall, the reviews for the restaurant are mixed. Some diners found the food to be average and not worth the price, with issues like overcooked steak and disappointing sides. However, others praised the authentic Argentine flavors, great wine selection, and excellent service provided by staff like Marco. While the prices were considered high by some, the quality of the steaks was commended. Special occasions were celebrated with complimentary desserts and personalized touches, contributing to a positive dining experience. Overall, the restaurant received praise for its food quality, service, and ambiance, but opinions were divided on whether it offered value for money.
