Lovely place. Excellent food. No record of me having made a reservation through open table but luckily still space. It was a special occasion so very relieved about that. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What SteveJ doesn't like about Hotel du Vin & Bistro - Bristol:

We had to wait ages for our food even though it was not that busy. It was almost 2 hours between sitting down and our main course arriving. Perhaps the effect of getting through most of the wine before the food arrived coloured our views but we thought the food was expensive for what it was and no better than a half decent gastro pub. It definitely is not a patch on what it was a few years ago when we last visited. read more. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Hotel du Vin & Bistro - Bristol even more worthwhile, tasty vegetarian recipes are also in the menu available. Eventually, the atmosphere also has importance: At this point, the bistro with its romantic small size can evoke the suitable homely atmosphere, the place serves but also meals from the European context.
