The Card of Gurkha Village from Chatham includes about 107 different meals and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about £6. What Edward Allen likes about Gurkha Village:

Eating A1, service a little tense as short staff, over all would have made 5 stars if the poor man tried to man restaurant bar solo had some help. have already been recommended and will be back, probably the most tasty food I had from this type for a long time, full of taste. keep good work read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What Elliot Wilson doesn't like about Gurkha Village:

Gurkha Village is a fabulous restaurant when it is open. Open Table used to reserve a table for Father's Day and to receive a reservation confirmation. In the restaurant that was looking forward to a nice meal to find it surrounded by Heras Fencing, as it was severely damaged by fire and closed. Even the parking spaces were fenced. The locals said this happened months ago. I am looking for a website to review Open Ta... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good assortment of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. As a rule, most dishes are prepared in the shortest time for you and served, Meals are also prepared here, tastily and freshly with traditional Indian spices.
