The place from Glasgow offers 64 different menus and drinks on the card at an average £9. What Isabel Breitenberg likes about Recess:

Outdoor seating area is lovely for the nice weather. The seating is well spaced out enough to relieve any covid-based anxiety. When we arrived it was very busy and staff still managed to serve quickly considering it was table service only. Limited menu but the food was delicious, will definitely return. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. WLAN is available for free. What Quentin Murphy doesn't like about Recess:

very bad it was the cheapest of food bread was hard filling was shameless nothing in them were very dry cake miniature and poor portion gave us two big pots of tee a tee bag in each so very weak tea staff were...friendly was too many hotels for the afternoon and this was far the worse went for our evening after filling is also they had a buffet for a buzy so read more. The Recess from Glasgow dishes out various flavorful seafood meals, Also, the guests of the establishment love the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. Furthermore, there are many typically British meals on the menu that make the English heart beat faster, You can admire an impressive scene of the deliciously decorated menus, as well as a pretty scene of some of the regional iconic places.
