The restaurant from London offers 113 different meals and drinks on the card at an average price of £14. What Freya Robertson likes about Camino King's Cross:

Good food at reasonable price good location? Service was fine although staff were busy generally I have visited the city branch also a few times but this was very good will return read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Leah Evans doesn't like about Camino King's Cross:

Shambolic service. Items missed from our order, then the kitchen was closed. The food we got wasn't bad but the portions were small for the price charged. Overall, on this basis I would give it a miss. read more. Want to spice up your eating and drinking routine? Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of small snacks and meals while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too simple!, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks. The restaurant also offers a balanced selection of spicy tapas, which are surely worth a try, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
