Been here a few times pre covid. This time with two friends new to the jockey. They were very pleased and sent me this comment; "good choice, good service, nice food and very good internally." Our views are the same. read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Gordon Ross doesn't like about The Jockey Inn: Although I'm usually a massive fan, I feel relaxed on Easter Sunday, food was really average, felt like the staff didn't really want to be there, yes just nit great. I will not return for a while, a real shame read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Jockey Inn in Malvern Hills traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, There's something for every palate and it's impossible to go wrong with the bite-sized Tapas.
