We visited the restaurant after being at the Tower of London. We had a lovely time. The food was very good en the staff was very kind. I had the Kentish bangers and mash. I loved it. The sausages we tender en perfectly grilled and the Madera gravy was finger licking good. My wife had the vegetable pie. And also this was delicious.

For sure a place to go back to. read more. I was one of 30 people for lunch here as a group and I was disappointed that their promises were not fully delivered upon. My concerns were: 1. The steaks were only average and mine was rather tough; 2.they did not have enough staff; 3. the waitress was generally argumentative and unhelpful to diners who had not received their food; 4. they did not provide enough chips with the steaks.
