The restaurant from London offers 233 different meals and drinks on the card at an average price of £8. What Rahul S likes about The Living Wall:

We walked in for a Sunday brunch, which was absolutely delicious. The waiter (Delver) was very polite and explained the brunch menu in detail although it was super busy. Chef Sanjay personally came to our table and recommended few dishes from the brunch menu which was super delicious, especially eggs royale and the sea food linguine. Great service, will surely visit again. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is free WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Robert W doesn't like about The Living Wall:

Absolutely dire, awful service waiting over an hour for food. When it arrived one steak that was requested to medium was severely overcooked and the burgers were greasy and mediocre at best. Everything was bland and under seasoned. Very very poor service. None of the staff knew what they were doing. Company prepaid for the meal and checking out was a disaster when it came to paying the bill. So disorganized and unpro... read more. If you're looking for more excitement than just eating and drinking, you'll find it in this sports bar. Enjoy large and small snacks and meals and watch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a versatile brunch, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American dishes like Burger or Barbecue.
