It's tucked away in the back street of Saltcoats in Ayrshire and it doesn't look much from the outside...inside was clean and there was a large menu...food was lovely. We had a Nepalese starter and a traditional lamb potato and a chicken with ginger curry for main with rice and a huge garlic naan bread. Service was good and friendly. Would recommend if you are in the area. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. If you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Motherland Spice from Saltcoats is a good bar, Dishes are also prepared here, tastily and freshly with traditional Indian spices. There are also exquisite dishes typical for Europe, Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
