Absolutely stunning food! I had the scotch egg salad, which was really delicious, and tried the fried halloumi and the seitan kebab and both of these were spectacular. The staff were incredibly friendly. Definitely will be dining here again. So glad such a great veggie alternative has opened up in Ely read more. What Inès Fontaine doesn't like about Market Street Brasserie:

Food was cooked and presented OK but I ordered lamb cutlets but was served leg steaks. When questioned, the waitress told me they were cutlets but that they had removed the bones. I've never heard such rubbish! read more. Market Street Brasserie from Ely is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and hang out with friends, Those who are passionate about the British cuisine will enjoy the large selection of traditional dishes and indulge in the taste of England.
