Fantastic for Mayfair to be able to have a really good and reasonably priced lunch in good surroundings and draft beers, a bar and not a bad and reasonably priced wine list. Our server from Romania absolutely charming too.

We had a great time. read more. What Shandra doesn't like about Browns - London Mayfair:

There is a wine on the menu that is absolutely terrible--a bitter, acidic Cabernet S. The waitress did not let us taste the wine before hand, instead pouring two overly glasses and then plonked them down in front of us and walked away. When we let her know that it really wasn't to our taste and we'd have a beer instead, it was a huge production, grilling us on our knowledge of wine, bringing the glasses to the barman...
