The restaurant from London offers 35 different meals and drinks on the card at an average price of £2. What BunchOfLilies likes about Tortilla:

The Bankside branch of Tortilla matches my past experience at Tortilla in another location. The decor is bright and colourful and the restaurant is spacious. Food is fresh and tasty, I think it's reasonably priced for the quality of food. The pulled beef burrito is delicious and the large size is huge! Service was good. I recommend for lunch, a quick bite in the evening or if you fancy some reasonably priced Mexican... read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Christoph Kollmann doesn't like about Tortilla:

This used to be a solid lunchtime choice. The flavour was great and the burrito was constructed with care. Unfortunately standards have fallen. The chicken is now bland. It needs to be charred more to develop the flavour, just like in the good old days. Sauce distribution is a key element of a burrito construction. On my previous two visits this has been seriously neglected. Time to go back to the drawing board and s... read more. Anticipate the varied, delicious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), You'll find nice South American menus also on the menu. Furthermore, you'll find tasty American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu.
