The Card of Gandhis from London contains about 88 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about £8. What Alma Vela likes about Gandhis:

In a city with myriad choices for Indian cuisine, this should be up on the list. The food was fresh and delicious. The staff was friendly, efficient and attentive. The wine list was short but nicely curated with inexpensive fruit forward wines that pair well with curries. (The waiter even knew how to expertly pour a bottle. The menu is thoughtful with lots of options. Brown rice is available and, though healthy, one... read more. What Whitney Hudson doesn't like about Gandhis:

This was my first time at Delis. The food is a bit different to a usual curry house The design your own dish was a bit different. It is a bit more expensive than some Indian restaurants but the décor is modern and clean. The service was good without being intrusive. It was quite quiet when we dined but that was probably due to it being a Monday evening. read more. If you feel like snacks, you should visit Gandhis because they have enchanting desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. You can also look forward to scrumptious vegetarian cuisine, With the bite-sized, Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, especially because there is something for every palate.
