The menu of Phoenicia from London includes 110 dishes. On average, dishes or drinks on the menu cost about £8. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. What nonamama likes about Phoenicia:

Phoenicia is one of the many reasons to relocate to Kentish Town. It is a super shop stocking all conceivable manner of food, exotic or not from the ingredients you'll need to cook Ottolenghi to a packet of crisps. There's a French section for the local frogs and a restaurant attached where you can eat in or take away a tempting selection of Middle Eastern treats. Not forgetting the butcher's shop and the ever-rotati... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What soaswendela doesn't like about Phoenicia:

We had two lovely wraps and the price was great, BUT the guy working behind the counter in the deli was genuinely rude and obviously disinterested in serving us, and clearly got annoyed when asked questions. Maybe he was having a bad day, but we got very disappointed as the store is lovely and the staff is usually really nice/helpful! read more. Phoenicia from London is a relaxed coffee house, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a warm coffee or a sweet chocolate, Easily digestible Mediterranean dishes are also on the menu. If you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch awaits you, Among the visitors, especially fine juices are highly sought after.
