The restaurant from Aberdeen offers 20 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average £2. What Max White likes about Frogurtz:

Fabulous modern shopping centre with a vast array of shops and restaurants, and with a cinema too. Clean and tidy inside, which features a well organized layout across both of the centre's floors. It backs onto the railway station and is right next door to the bus station too, and also has a multistorey car park to the south. Would definitely recommend a stop in here especially if you just want to kill some time if n... read more. What Jalyn Huels doesn't like about Frogurtz:

The centre is very age related. For us older Aberdonians there ain't much shopping in it to suit our older lifestyle. That's my opinion and I would say I can live without it! However, it is a gathering place and the food halls are good. Worthy of mention is Cosmo for its fixed price eat all you can offers. It seems to be the flavour of the month just now but tastes can change and centres come and go. Quite an archite... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at Frogurtz, freely at your own will.
