A great location on the river. The menu is varied and the chosen dishes were delicious. Service was friendly and attentive. Spectacular views of London at night with all the lights. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Wayne Campbell doesn't like about Oxo

Tower:

This review is for the brasserie on the other side of the floor. It's supposedly less formal and offers live music. They have a vegan starter and a main, but that's it. The cauliflower starter wasn't bad, but the spelt risotto entree was a miss. The spelt gave the dish more bite than a risotto typically has, which was a welcome change, but overall it didn't quite work for me. read more. A visit to Oxo Tower is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, the restaurant serves also menus from the European environment. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Incidentally, there is the typical atmosphere and obviously also the typical ambiance of a Brasserie.
