Undoubtedly a must on any Douglas restaurant list. Very cozy super friendly staff. Music volume ideal for a conversation, but above all: fabulous food. Had the Manx Queenies crêpe as starter: excellent! The main, Lobster, the small 1lb version, was actually a generous part at a great price. Other than that, the bread they bake in the restaurant has an amazing variety and is hard to resist! Five stars all around! read more. What زينا بناهنده doesn't like about Tanroagan:

Lobster was not fresh at all, probably the worst lobster I've tasted, tasted a bit rotten. Fish sole was okay, the only thing that was decent but it was a tiny portion. Manx Queenies was bland and tasteless. I recommend against coming here. Not sure why this place has such good reviews. Edit: the manager took the lobster off the bill. I appreciate the gesture.
