What Rhiannon cara likes about Cornish Food Box Company: I have been here many times over the years but since it has been the "mussel box" I fear it's a bit hit and miss. The food is "good" and service "good" but it's not much more than that. I've experienced that if you come at off peak times, as we have in October this time, the menu options are a bit lacklustre and the outside glass dining space was freezing. My partner had a whole hake which was very skinny, and hard t... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, and there is free WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What

Keith Simpson doesn't like about Cornish Food Box Company:

Travelled 240 miles to eat there as part of a weekend away to find the menu had been scraped and had been replaced by one with hardly any sea food on it, we were not notified of this despite the restaurant having my email address. To top it off we were also charged an automatic "service charge" on top of the bill, a pet hate of mine. Service: Dine in read more. The Cornish Food Box Company originating from Truro offers various fine seafood menus, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the large variety of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine. Courses are usually prepared quickly for you and brought to the table.
