The restaurant from London offers 189 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of £40. What User likes about Fino's Wine Bar & Restaurant - Mount Street:

Fino's has a great ambience. Food is pretty average. We had fried calamari, zucchini, pasta carbonara `all of which were particularly fatty and greasy and a pasta alio olio which was good but very heavy on the garlic and chilli. My main reason for writing a review is the waiters definitely gave off the impression they would have preferred to be elsewhere rather than serving customers. Their manner was brusque verging on rude... read more. You can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Fino's Wine Bar & Restaurant - Mount Street:

We asked to have Pizza from the Pizzeria upstairs (which have done plenty of times before) and while our hosts obliged, the service starting getting very curt from there on out. It seemed as though we were rushed through so as to get rid of us which made for a somewhat unpleasant experience, something I am not normally used to from Fino's. read more. A visit to Fino's Wine Bar & Restaurant - Mount Street is particularly valuable due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the delicate pizza, baked fresh in a traditional manner. Furthermore, you can savor oven-warm breads and snacks, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
