Due to changing plans we booked this restaurant only one day before dining having no real idea about what to expect. We were most welcome despite showing up a few minutes early for our table and enjoyed a drink in the small reception room where we made our menu choice before dining. The food and wine were excellent, the service friendly, attentive but unhurried and the ambience throughout the evening felt warm a... read more.

What Lola Gray doesn't like about Estbek House:

great service and the fish dishes we have chosen were excellent. the restaurant was quiet in the night we went so that we profited from the owner to talk time to us where they produced their products. just a short drive from whitby where we were. we would definitely recommend for a special occasion.
