The staff particularly Mo are fantastic..the food and ambiance excellent.. a real, comfortable home from home my wife and I have been delighted to discover since moving to Tanworth a few months ago read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Lee Reid doesn't like about Nuthurst Grange Country House:

Lovely venue with attentive staff. However, the Sunday lunch was, at best, average. We went for the leg of lamb and it was sinewy, fatty and a touch tough. The green vegetables were acceptable but the carrots were done with cinnamon which completely took away the taste of carrot. The roast potatoes could have been so much tastier. read more. With the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Nuthurst Grange Country House becomes even more attractive, look forward to the typical delicious French cuisine. Besides small snacks and sweet pieces, we also offer cold and hot drinks and cakes, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
