The Manor Arms is sort of midway between a gastro pub and a restaurant. The food is good and well presented while the ambience is closer to a gastro pub. The service is enthusiastic and attentive, but should you really have to open and pour the wine yourself at this level? Perhaps a little more training for the staff. The restaurant is comfortable enough but a bit noisy at times, some sound deadening furnishings woul... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What Keith Mitchell doesn't like about The Manor Arms Inn:

beautiful setting. personal friendly. eating was good and a varied menu. the service was very slow. After we had 25 minutes between the order of our coffee and the necessity to go and despite the demand, we had to leave without our coffee. there was no refund offer, not that we had time to organize one anyway! A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Manor Arms Inn in Abberley traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, Likewise, the visitors of the establishment prefer the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
