Very limited menu. Not one fish dish. Deep fried chicken served both as a starter and a main with same salad garnish, but just a different sauce, neither of which were homemade. Chips had been cooked in dirty oil with black burnt bits in bottom of dish. Won't be rushing back which is a real shame as it has a prime location and the potential to be a lovely little bistro which is exactly what Ballyclare needs. Waitress... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What

MarkA doesn't like about Grey's:

It's need decorating. It hasn't really had anything done to it since it was Asher's bakery. The starters were lovely but the steak was as tough as a boot. We put it into our bag and gave it to the dog when we got home. He enjoyed it to be fair. The two girls serving were great and the two german beers on tap is a great idea. Something with great potential for Ballyclare which looks like it's trying to be done on the... read more. Admirable is this small yet fine Bistro, not only for its ambiance, but also for its selection of typical, delicious menus usually at reasonable prices, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
