Wetherspoons in Stafford, once a movie theater, is now a cozy pub offering a tasty salad and generous apple crumble. The staff is friendly and efficient, making it a worthwhile stop for familiar and inexpensive food and drinks. While it can get crowded on weekends, the beautiful building and occasional film screenings add to the appeal. The delivery service is fast and reliable, with quality rib and curry options. The balcony on the upper floor offers a great view of the pub. Overall, a cool and welcoming place for a meal or a quiet drink in Stafford.
