Unique dining experience at the home of the chef sitting in their library had a lovely homey feel. Our waiter was fantastic attentive and witty but not too intrusive. The food was great in particular the eel was rich and smokey, the gumbo was hearty, and the toast ice cream was simply divine. To top it all off we got to meet and chat with the chef afterwards about his interest in food. A wonderful night out with frie... read more. What JaneS doesn't like about Smoke And Thyme:

Rather underwhelmed by the menu selection and very underwhelmed at portion sizes. The pumpkin curry was tiny and certainly not enough for a portion. The tagliatelle was pretty unspectacular. The price for 3 tiny courses was steep compared to other pop ups. Not as good as we had expected. Surroundings a tad dusty and dirty , and the chef appeared at the end in the filthiest apron ! Not a good look. read more. Smoke And Thyme from Oxford is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and hang out with friends.
